Terms and conditions

Our Guarantee and Commitment to you

- We will give you all the information and training you need to complete this course to a safe and very high standard
- We will only use fully qualified PADI professionals chosen for their professionalism and ability to teach scuba
- If weather hampers completion of your course we can re-book you, available space permitting according to our course schedule. We won't leave you hanging

Your Commitment to us

- Your Course fee is non-refundable and valid for the 2011/12 course season ending April 30th 2012. If your physician decides you are not fit to dive we will only refund your Course fee if the PADI materials have not been opened or used. For full refund, leave the materials sealed until you have passed your medical. There is a charge of $150 for used PADI materials
- Re-booking for any reason will incur a $200 charge. If you have to re-book, we require a minimum of 1 week's notice
- In the event of course non-completion on the part of the student, the course cost is non-refundable
- For your safety, during your training excessive consumption of alcohol and/or drugs is prohibited. You are required to arrive at the required time for the duration of the course
- To avoid costly disappointment, please speak to one of our Instructors for honest guidance before buying your equipment
- For your own safety our company policy requires any equipment used during training to be inspected and approved by our Training Manager
